Entry Information

- › Categories: Adult and Youth (16 and under).
- › The competition is open to photographers of any level.
- › Digital entries are judged in the first round and printed photographs are judged in the final judging.
- › Images may be taken anywhere outdoors (no studio photography), but they must be garden or plant related. When the photograph includes insects or animals, the plant must be the major subject.
- › Enhancements and modifications to the image to make it more closely represent the original subject photographed are allowed.
- › Text and/or borders are not allowed anywhere on the face of the image or mat.
- › Entrants must have captured and created the image. Youth entries must be the work of the youth with no assistance from an adult.
- › The entry may not have been published prior to the contest (social media is okay).
- › Each entrant is limited to a total of two photographs.
- › Once a submission has been made online, it may not be replaced.
- › Selected photographs must be properly framed, mounted, and wired for hanging:
 - › Matted with a white mat or no mat,
 - › Mounted in a black frame that does not exceed 14" x 17" (outer dimensions), and
 - › The image may not exceed 11" x 14."
- › Clip frames and canvas wrap prints are not allowed.
- › Prints are to be hand delivered.
- › The decisions by judges are final.
- › Images submitted may be used by the JCRA or the Triangle CNPA for promotional purposes.
- › Photographs not picked up by December 7 become the property of the JC Raulston Arboretum.
- › Neither the JCRA nor the Triangle CNPA can be held responsible for loss or damage from any cause. See Web site for details.
